My Sincere Thanks

Over the past few years, I have written “Thank You” notes to people who have given me Christmas gifts. But there has been a change.

Two weeks ago, I had a fall which hurt my shoulder and my arm. Because of the pain, even at night in bed, my usual activities have been severely limited.

I have visited the doctor. I have had an X-Ray. I have visited the physiotherapy people and various other healing activities, but this injury will take time to heal, and surgery may be in my future.

So, this year, the personal notes will be put on hold. I wish to sincerely thank everyone who gave me the beautiful Christmas gifts.

Thank you ! Thank you!

(Fr Edward Brophy)

“We want to see a movement of Catholics across this country who are healed, converted, formed and set on fire to bring the eucharistic love of our Lord out to the world.”

RC Cemetery

For anyone visiting the cemetery please make sure the gate is securely closed when you leave. There have been many occasions when the gate is left wide open. That is absolutely unnecessary so please, please close the gate when exiting the cemetery. Let's keep wild animals out, and our loved ones resting places safe and free from damage.

Thank you. The Cemetery Committee.

Tourism, Culture, Arts and Recreation January 4, 2023

The Honourable Steve Crocker, Minister of Tourism, Culture, Arts and Recreation, is extending congratulations to Kevin Blackmore of Glovertown, Wayne Chaulk of Charlottetown (Bonavista Bay) and Ray Johnson of Carbonear on their appointments as Members of the Order of Canada.

Blackmore, Chaulk and Johnson were recognized for their contributions to Canadian music and comedy as ambassadors of Newfoundland and Labrador’s culture and heritage, and were among 99 recipients named to the Order of Canada by Her Excellency the Right Honourable Mary Simon, Governor General of Canada, on December 29, 2022.

The musical comedy trio, known as “Buddy Wasisname and the Other Fellers”, was formed in 1983 after an impromptu first performance at a high school assembly in Glovertown.

They went on to entertain audiences throughout Canada with their unique brand of sketch comedy, combined with traditional and original music for nearly 40 years. Their body of work includes iconic originals like “Saltwater Joys,” which pays homage to the quiet comforts of rural life, as well as their popular interpretations of traditional favourites like “Sarah” and “By The Glow of the Kerosene Light”.

On the lighter side, offerings such as “Gotta Get Me Moose, B’y” and “Salt Beef Junkie” provide a comedic take on Newfoundland and Labrador culture that endears them to locals and fans across Canada.

Blackmore, Chaulk and Johnson will receive their Order of Canada insignia at an investiture ceremony in Ottawa later this year.
