World Day of Prayer for Vocations
April 30, 2023

World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament: The World Day of prayer for vocations is celebrated on the last weekend of April. As I will be away from the parish on that weekend, I would like to have Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament with the Rosary on this Sunday, April 23, 2023. Benediction will begin at 7:00pm.

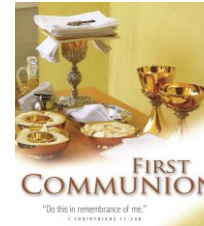

Vocations to the priesthood and the religious life should be a constant concern for all our people at all times. But one day each year is set aside to pray especially for vocations. You are invited to share in this sacred time, asking the Lord of the Harvest to send workers into his vineyard. Please try to attend this beautiful time of prayer.

(Fr. Brophy)

Jesus said to them,
"The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."
(Luke 10)

First Holy Communion Sunday Schedule

Sunday April 23:

Sunday April 30:

Sunday May 07:

Sunday May 14:

Sunday May 21:

Sunday May 28: First Communion

There will be no Children Liturgy in the sacristy on April 30, May 07, 14 and 21.

Family Gathering: Next weekend (April 29 - 30) I will be away from the parish. I am hoping to be part of a family gathering which will take place on the last weekend of April. Father Brian Colbert will celebrate the Sunday Masses in Gambo and Cull's Harbor at the usual times. Father Billy Hearn has kindly offered to celebrate the Mass on St. Brendan's. That Mass will be offered on Sunday night at 7:00pm (April 30). I am truly grateful to both of these men who will celebrate the weekend Masses in my absence. (Fr. Brophy)

Fleeing the war in Ukraine: (Fr. Brophy). Since the outbreak of the war in Ukraine, many people are trying to escape with their loved ones to a safe place. One place where people seek refuge is with the Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate which is close to the Ukraine-Polish border. The sisters provide their guests with food, clothing, medicine, hygiene products, blankets, bedding and comfort to displaced adults and children who come knocking at their door. Although the sisters' lives are constantly in danger, they continue their valuable work. Much of the financial help the sisters are providing comes from CNEWA (Catholic Near East Welfare Association). If you could support this group, it would be a wonderful gesture.
