Happy Fathers' Day

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. He said to his disciples: "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few." (Matthew 9)

Parish Council Meeting (Thursday June 15, 2023)

A big thank you to all the parishioners and members who attended our parish council meeting which was held at Billy's Chestnut Café. And a big thank you to Billy for the use of his Café and for the snacks provided.

There are lots of activities around the church, as you can see and with the Holy Spirit's guidance much more to come.

These are some of the highlights of our meeting.

The sale sign for the parish hall and property will soon be going up. The Sutton Group is our realtor. We desperately need the proceeds of the sale to begin other projects required to upgrade our beautiful church which is celebrating its 120 years anniversary this year.

We have also set up a Church Restoration Fund for donations towards these renovations.

During the last rain-storm, we detected several water leaks in the church and furnace room, so our next big project is to replace the shingles and whatever other work needs to be done to the roof. If necessary, we may need to cancel Sunday Mass while work is going on in and around the church.

At the back of the church (or entrance), there is a diagram of all the projects we have planned if and when the funds become available.

Our next Parish Council meeting is Thursday, July 13, at 7:00 pm at Billy Chestnut Café. All are welcome, including parishioners.

Stay tuned for more.

Remembering in our Prayers

Let us remember and pray for the sick of our parish including Alice Kelly, Fran Gilbert, Lucy Greene, Sol Flores, Richard Brown, Marg Ford, Alvin Johnson, Leona Moss Stroud, Bertha Holloway, Agatha (Aggie) McGrath, Fr. Edward Brophy, Fr. Brian Colbert and all who have asked us to pray for them.

Anastasia (Neice) Kelly

Anastasia (Neice) Kelly
August 08, 1953 – May 20, 2023

The funeral for the late Anastasia (Neice) Kelly will be held on Saturday, June 24th, 1:00 pm here at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Gambo. Inurnment will take place at the RC cemetery after Mass followed by a celebration of life at the Smallwood Interpretation Centre.

May her Soul Rest In Peace.

RC Cemetery

RC Cemetery Sign.

On May 28, 2023, we published in our Bulletin a "Help Wanted" sign for carpenters in our parish who would be willing to repair the box which contains the "RC Cemetery" sign.

Well, two men from our parish, Fred Jeans and Brian Kelly, answered our call, and what a wonderful job they did. If you pass on the highway, take a look and you will see how beautiful the sign now looks.

Thank you Fred and Brian. Truly we are blessed as a parish to have such caring and generous parishioners.
